
SWIPE

South West Interest in Paediatric Epilepsy

8th Feb 2017 - DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel,
Redcliffe Hill, Bristol, BS1 6NJ

- 09:30 - Registration and coffee
- 10:00 - Welcome / Housekeeping
- 10:05 - TeleEEG - remote EEG reporting
Anne Clarke, Highly Specialised Clinical Physiologist - Neurophysiology
Treliske Hospital, Truro
- 10:50 - Case Presentations
- 11:20 - Coffee Break
- 11:50 - Case Presentations
- 12:30 - Selection Criteria for 3 days of Therapeutic Hypothermia (TH) treatment after newborn asphyxia is based on aEEG depression. At 2 years, only 2% of TH infants have seizures needing regular AED treatment in a large SWE cohort.
Professor Marianne Thoresen
Professor of Neonatal Neuroscience, University of Bristol
Professor of Physiology, University of Oslo
- 13:15 - Lunch
- 14:15 - Network development / Future of SWIPE
OPEN-UK (Organisation of Paediatric Epilepsy Networks) - An Update
Dr Andrew Lux, Consultant Paediatric Neurologist, BRHC
- 15:00 - Coffee Break
- 15:30 - Seizure semiology and ictal EEG
Dr Nick Kane, Consultant Clinical Neurophysiologist
University Hospitals Bristol NHS Trust and North Bristol NHS Trust
- 16:15 - Plans for next meeting / Close